Foreword

Foreword

Dear readers,
Dear friends of Malawi,

We wish you a happy, joyful and healthy New Year! And we are kicking it off today with a special edition of our newsletter for the following reasons:

Change of ambassador

There is a change of ambassador coming up in Berlin. Joseph John Mpinganjira will end his tenure as ambassador in mid-February 2026 and leave the country in mid-March. Nothing is known yet about his future or his successor.

New visa fees

Following the announcement and now publication in the Malawi Gazette Supplement, the new visa fees apply with immediate effect:

Transit and single entry US$50.00,

Multiple entry within 6 months US$150.00,

Multiple entry within 12 months US$250.00.

Visas 'on arrival' and 'e-visas' are still available.

Mapping of NGOs operating in Malawi

On the initiative of Martin Schwarz, Malawi NGOs, many NGOs operating in Malawi are listed on a Google map. The aim and purpose: better cooperation, getting to know each other, exchange!

Anyone who would like to participate can access the map via this link:
